

The Reconciliation Mandate

FEBRUARY 2016 SPECIAL

PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY ROYAL MOTIVATIONS INTERNATIONAL (ROMI)

Giving people a new positive mentality to become productive to their societies.

featuring:

Transforming the Prodigal Mentality
to that of a Son

Amb. J. D. Jydson

Wisdom for the Woman

Sis. Jummal J. D. Jydson

Most Recommended
Book
of the Month

Brief on the
Reconciliation mandate

Words on Marble:

Those who truly seek Him will definitely not only find Him but find all good things, reward and blessings needed for life and godliness

Pastor Moses D. Abarshi

Transform That Prodigal Mentality to that of a Legitimate Son

..."But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you, and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants."'" Luke 15:11-19 (NKJV)

Some of the people that found themselves in the "filling the stomach with the pods that the swine ate" kind of life today, were once upon a time exceedingly blessed while in the Father's presence. But along the line, they demanded for their own portions of the goods that fall to them. Having seen the riches of the wealth the Father has blessed them with, they felt they could then do and undo with or without God and therefore, decided to journey to a far country, a place they know nothing about. The son never knew how much the father's house meant to him until he left. Whenever any son of the father leaves the father's presence, such a person has no choice than to resort to a prodigal living of wasting whatsoever possession (health, riches, life, food, shelter etc.) the father has given him. The father's presence is such a place of absolute, provision, protection and Peace. These are some among the so many things we enjoy in the Father's presence:

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.

You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.

A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

If you make the Most High your dwelling — even the LORD, who is my refuge — then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent.

For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone. You will tread upon the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent.

"Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name.

He will call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him.

With long life will I satisfy him and show him my salvation." Psalms 91:1-8 (NIV)

When the severe famine arose in that foreign land, which is usually the case outside God's presence; the son went and joined himself to the citizen of that country; he simply went from frying pan to fire. Instead of been treated with compassion, he was abused to the level of a swine, with uttermost contempt and without regard for human life. This is usually how satan treats God's people. A cautionary note to take to heart is that; do not expect any help from the devil when you are in trouble. He will only worsen the situation.

Funny enough, the son regarded such a treatment as the most honorable he ever received in life, as in since he would gladly have his stomach filled with the pods that the swine ate, even though no one gave him any human edibles to eat. May you never find your life in such a confounded mess in Jesus's Mighty Name. Amen.

The greatest problem I discovered is not in leaving the father's presence, wasting all the possessions with prodigal living but in the mentality people usually come back with. One might thank God for the prodigal son's sudden change of mind when he came back to his senses to go back to his father. Unfortunately, he did that with an already damaged mindset, a very wrong attitude to go back to the father with. This is where most believers are getting it wrong. The difference between a repentant heart with a damaged mindset and an unrepentant heart is that the repentant heart can go back to the father's house. But the two hearts have so much in common; both of them will not enjoy the benefits of the father's house because all of them don't believe to deserve them.

This scenario is not different from what is happening in the lives of most believers in the faith. They believed in the saving power of God but are never living in the reality of it. They are saved but seem to be more in bondage than in freedom. They live in perpetual feeling of condemnation and guilt. Although Jesus has redeemed and declared them righteous before God, they always believe they are not worthy, they are filthy, and they are such a useless mess who will only be free not in this world but in heaven. They are simply comfortable in their unworthiness mentality.

Many of the so called genuine born again believers of our time are not healed of the injury of the prodigal mentality. They keep holding to the wrong notion of; God has not completely forgiven them, or God will only forgive them when they go to heaven. They keep holding unto a degraded mindset of feeling unworthy and useless before God. They believe that God has received them back but will not treat them as his sons and daughters because of what they did in the past. So they always go to God with the prodigal mentality, a shallow mindset of been a slave of slaves; full of inferiority complex. However, the only thing that could make God not to receive any of the lost sons back as his child is if that person refuses to go back to him in the first place.

But the moment such a person goes back, the father takes him back and treats him with honor and with dignity. God treats his returned children as though they never sinned in their entire lives, in fact, with the most joyous reception.

Listen to what the father said in Isaiah 43:25:

"I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake; and I will not remember your sins. NKJV

Therefore,
If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1:9 (NIV)

When God forgives, He doesn't see the past sins of anyone anymore. In actual fact, God always sees you as a special image of His; a perfect new creature.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God. For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him. 2 Corinthians 5:17-21 (NKJV)

That was why the father's attitude to the returned prodigal son, even though with a damaged mind was so shocking to everyone, even his blood brother who supposed to rejoice for seeing his brother back. I couldn't believe what the father did compared to what many people believed the father would do. Many people believed the father would reject and denounce the son. But the father did the unthinkable.

...But when he was still a great way off, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

"But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry; for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' And they began to be merry.

Luke 15:20-24

What would you say to this father after doing all these things to now start treating this returned son as a disrespectful and shameless sinner? I know you will call him a hypocrite father who never forgives. But surprisingly to the notion of so many people, this father was never interested in what the son did. Instead, he was overjoyed for seeing his son back. He didn't call him a sinner but a son. In fact when he saw him from afar, he left everything to go after him, fell on his neck and kissed him. When the son was trying to say his motive of coming back, I was surprised to see the father talking about something else. Guess what he said!

... "But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. And bring the fatted calf here and kill it, and let us eat and be merry; for this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' And they began to be merry.

Luke 15:22-24

Wow! What a loving and compassionate father we have! Everything the father did to the prodigal son with this absurd mentality was out of his best; the same best treatment he could give to him if he had not sinned. This is the kind of God we serve. His loving kindness is limitless.

The worst that the devil can do to you as a believer is to instill in you the thought of inferiority complex before God. Not having the ability to boldly stand before God without having any sense of guilt and condemnation. The damage of the prodigal mentality is worse than sin itself. Sin prevents you from having access to all your redemptive rights in Christ Jesus, but the prodigal mentality denies you from enjoying them even though they have been freely given to you in Christ. It is funny and absurd to be poor when you are rich, to be sick when you are healed, to be dead when you are alive? It is really disheartening. Stop giving room to this prodigal mentality any more. If you are in Christ, you are forever free in deed.

Walking and living in the freedom you have in Christ Jesus must be your conscious effort. Jesus has set you free and has given you all the blessings you could ever need in this life and the one to come. You are a legitimate child of God.

There is more revelation to what the Father wants you to know on this subject matter than I could write. The more I write, the more the revelations of the love of God I have. The eye of my understanding is been flooded with light that if I keep writing, it will become a very voluminous book. The father we have is wonderful in his love toward us. Therefore, I pray for you this prayer as Apostle Paul prayed for the Ephesians, with the utmost desire to see you develop a more intimate relationship with our Father, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Glory:

For this reason [seeing the greatness of this plan by which you are built together in Christ], I bow my knees before the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, For Whom every family in heaven and on earth is named [that Father from Whom all fatherhood takes its title and derives its name].

May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the [Holy] Spirit [Himself indwelling your innermost being and personality].

May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love,

That you may have the power and be strong to apprehend and grasp with all the saints [God's devoted people, the experience of that love] what is the breadth and length and height and depth [of it];

[That you may really come] to know [practically, through experience for yourselves] the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge [without experience]; that you may be filled [through all your being] unto all the fullness of God [may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself]!

Now to Him Who, by (in consequence of) the [action of His] power that is at work within us, is able to [carry out His purpose and] do superabundantly, far over and above all that we [dare] ask or think [infinitely beyond our highest prayers, desires, thoughts, hopes, or dreams] —

To Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations forever and ever. Amen (so be it).
Ephesians 3:14-21 (AMP)

Remember, It is the father's best wishes to welcome you back and give you everything from the abundance of his riches.

LIFE APPLICATION PRINCIPLES

1. BE A COMMITTED DOER OF THE WORD

But be doers of the Word [obey the message], and not merely listeners to it, betraying yourselves [into deception by reasoning contrary to the Truth].

For if anyone only listens to the Word without obeying it and being a doer of it, he is like a man who looks carefully at his [own] natural face in a mirror;

For he thoughtfully observes himself, and then goes off and promptly forgets what he was like.

But he who looks carefully into the faultless law, the [law] of liberty, and is faithful to it and perseveres in looking into it, being not a heedless listener who forgets but an active doer [who obeys], he shall be blessed in his doing (his life of obedience).
James 1:22-25 (AMP)

Whatsoever is required of you to do from the scripture, do them as if it were the only thing you will ever do in your entire life. In other words, do them with everything you got.

2. LET THE WORD OF GOD BECOME YOUR DAILY CONFESSION OF BELIEF

Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.
Joshua 1:8 (NIV)

What occupies your mouth is actually what you believe. People do say what they really believe. For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks (Matthew 12:34). Jesus said that you will have whatever you say, (Mark 11:23-24). Do not say what you feel or just think out of your past or present experience. Say and think about what God's Word says about you. All the blessings written in the Bible are for every seed of Abraham of which you are a fully qualified seed (Galatians 3:13-14). One thing about saying something every day is that it has the potency of changing your mind. People do what is actually in their minds. A mindset always results to actions. Keep appropriating the blessings of God from the scriptures to yourself and you will see within the shortest time possible the exceeding great power of God at work in, around and for you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION OF THE MONTH

Are you still tormented by the evil powers of the kingdom of darkness? What is your business, family, ministry, academics, and career, like? Are you stagnated by the worries of life? Your days of bondage are over from today. You will live an addicted life of saying, and doing the word. The word of God shall become your absolute belief system. Anything responsible for stealing your peace, joy, happiness, health, glory, honor, power, riches, wisdom, strength, and blessing is defeated and remain powerless over your life, forever and ever in Jesus' Mighty Name. Amen!

I decree from today that your days of living in bondage, and that of the prodigal mentality are over. I declare you free over sickness, poverty, and spiritual death in Jesus Name. Amen.

Because the Greater One is now living in you, your deeds shall be great in this life. Your seeds shall be mighty upon the earth. You will live an endless dignified life as a light of the world and salt of the earth. You will forever be far from fear and shame. You will live in the reality of Revelation 21:3-4 from today; God will wipe away all tears from your eyes, the power of death is ended over you and your family, neither sorrow nor pain, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain in your entire life. All former things are passed away in the Powerful Name of Jesus Christ. Amen!

Welcome to the era of the best kind of life ever!

Wisdom for the Woman

Sis. Jummai J. D. Jydson

There is no limit to what a woman who is fully grounded in the Word of God can do. Women, who know their God, do exploits in their families, societies, nations and the world at large. The value of a godly woman is indescribable. Nothing can be compared to that. She stands in the gap in prayers and godly deeds. She is a channel through which God blesses whatever she comes in contact with. No wonder the Bible says in Proverbs 18:22 that "He who finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favor from the LORD".

Although, women are known to be weaker vessels, godly women are exceptional. They occupy a very important position in their families, Churches, Societies, and the entire world. They are simply indispensable pillars of the world. I encourage you to be committed to prayers, studying every life changing materials for your continuous growth, and most especially studying and doing the Word of God. Maximize every opportunity in your way to add value to your life. It is often said, you cannot give what you don't have.

This godly attitude will trigger a supernatural all-round growth in the life of your children and husband to love the Lord with the whole of their hearts, respect authority and most especially become responsible people. Playing your role as a wife can prevent evils from attacking your family. The woman as a helper is more than just been industrious in domestic or office activities, even though they are also important. According to Proverbs 31:10-31, a virtuous woman is a wise woman who does all that is expected of her to support her family and the society.

It is extremely dangerous for any woman to be so empty of God's Word. Being busy with other things and abandoning your primary ministry as a woman can destabilize the welfare of your family. Know the word, apply it and keep interceding for your family on a daily basis. An empty woman is a woman without God or the knowledge of His Word. Many families are perishing for the lack of these basic truths. People always perish for lack of God's knowledge, (Hosea 4:6). Do not allow your family to come to the point of perishing while you can change the course of history with the power of God at work in your life. Whatever is going wrong in your life or family can be corrected through the Word of God. Keep confessing and prophesying every solution found in the word of God concerning any issue. An empty woman has nothing to offer to her family. Let your husband, children, and relatives feel your impact while you are still alive.

I believe in the world changing ability of a godly woman. Women like Deborah, Esther, Rahab, Abigail, Mary the Mother of Jesus, and Dorcas did what we still remember them for. You have a greater ability of doing more than what they did. Let your life as a woman be a blessing to your family, society, country and the world at large. You are a great asset to our world. Live while you live!

The Most Recommended Book Study of the Month

Enjoying Divine Presence

(Keys to having and maintaining your daily walk with God)

By Pastor Moses D. Abarshi

Please feel free to contact us for the order of your Copy. This book is a must read for all who desire enjoying, understanding, and engaging Divine Presence. It is educative, transforming, and Power Packed

BRIEF ON THE RECONCILIATION MANDATE

ROYAL MOTIVATIONS international

(a.k.a Living Hope Commission)

...Inspiring true hope for a true meaningful lifestyle

The Reconciliation Mandate Monthly Publication is out in fulfilment of the vision of Royal Motivations International (ROMI); a non denominational ministry founded by Ambs. J. D. Jydson to reach out to all the world with a message of Hope in order to completely reconcile both men and women back to God.

The Challenges of life have set the hearts of many men and women in conflict with God. They develop a hatred toward God and resort to evil activities because they ignorantly believed that God hates them that is why they are sick, poor, abused, humiliated, oppressed, suppressed, and suffering one thing or the other. Out of resentment, they engage in many ungodly activities that separate them from God and eventually ruins their lives. God has given us the mandate of helping people see the true Love and provisions that God has made available for them in Christ Jesus through Written, Audio and Video Publications and Seminars. We are simply Reconciliation Ambassadors for Christ with a message of hope on how to live a more productive life and have a healthy relationship with God.

Our Anchor Scriptures are John 3:16-17 and 2 Corinthians 5:18-20.

This February Publication is our maiden edition. If the Lord has blessed you through this mandate and wish to share your testimony, prayer request or desire to Partner with us in any way possible, please, boldly contact us through the following:

Phone

+234(0)8026517729

+234(0)8160037495

e-mail

romilive.ng@gmail.com

ambs.jdjydson@gmail.com

Facebook Page: Royal Motivations International

Facebook Ambs. J. D. Jydson

Our Blogg: www.romileadership.blogspot.com

Watsapp: 08026517729

NOTES: Kindly text or mail us your email address to freely subscribe or Like our Facebook Page to download the full colored soft copy format of this or future publications in PDF to use on your electronic devices

Ambs. & Mrs. Jummai J. D. Jydson